WLCFS WELCOMES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

DECEMBER 31, 2009 (MILWAUKEE)—WLCFS is pleased to announce that Pastor Joel Zank and Dr. Richard Lusic have joined its Board of Directors.

Pastor Joel Zank currently serves as the parish pastor for Mount Olive Lutheran Church, in Appleton WI. In addition to serving WLCFS, he also serves on the Board of Directors for Hope Center—a WELS ministry dealing with life issues, and is the Second Vice President for the Northern Wisconsin District.

Richard Lusic, M.D., is currently a hospitalist with Aurora Advanced Healthcare in Milwaukee, WI. He is board certified in internal medicine and received his medical degree from the Medical College of Wisconsin. He and his family are members of Calvary, Thiensville, WI.

“We are excited to welcome these two accomplished men to the Board of Directors,” notes David Nommensen, WLCFS Board Chairman. “We believe the expertise and experience they bring will only enhance the organization.”

The WLCFS Board of Directors is made up of 12 accomplished men from within the Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod (WELS) who volunteer their time to oversee all aspects of Wisconsin Lutheran Child & Family Service, Inc.

WLCFS (Wisconsin Lutheran Child & Family Service, Inc.) has been healing and helping people in need through the ministry of Jesus Christ since 1965. Headquartered in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, WLCFS is a not-for-profit organization that owns and operates a continuum of senior care facilities and six Christian Family Counseling offices throughout Wisconsin.
