Descriptions of Materials

Handbook: A compilation of materials that various groups have found helpful in starting an A&DA group

Conquerors Through Christ: A 135-page booklet that contains brief stories of people in recovery plus an inventory to use in working through a self-examination step

From the Word: A booklet of 85 brief devotions to read as you work through recovering

Love Beyond Our Imagination: A devotional booklet for families who feel the hurt of a loved one's problem

Walking His Paths in Recovery: A devotion book that has three devotions on each of the 12 steps of recovery

Caminando en Sus Senderos: A Spanish translation of Walking His Paths in Recovery

Set Free Through Christ: A pamphlet of Bible studies on the 12 steps

12-Step Meditations: A pamphlet that presents a devotion for each of the 12 steps

Calling Cards: Cards that groups can hand out to advertise their meeting day, time, and place (information can be printed on a clear label and placed on the back of the card)

Awareness Window: A quarterly newsletter for those in recovery that contains a devotion on one of the 12 steps, a listing of the current A&DA meetings, and articles/poetry relating to recovery

If you would like to order any of these materials, please fill out the quantity and mail to Elsa Manthey at the address on the top of the form. The materials and an updated invoice with shipping costs will be sent to you at the address you provide.
